TELEGRAMS

(via Galveston.)

New York, 9th—The Herald of this city, referring to the Argentine crisis, makes the following editorial remarks to-day:—"The vigorous measures taken by President Pellegrini to prevent the Radical revolution show that the present Government has the force and energy to solve difficult problems and maintain a good Government in the republic. The Radicals, under Dr. Alem's leadership, contemplated a general rising. On the night before the day fixed for the revolution the plot was discovered and the leaders were arrested. This restored tranquillity and stifled the revolution.

"Argentina is very unfortunate in her financial transactions, and the prosperity of the Republic is seriously threatened. A revolution, or any disturbance whatever at the present moment would be disastrous, and prevision is more necessary than ever. President Pellegrini has shown the world that under his Administration peace and prosperity are ensured.

London, 9th—The Times correspondent in Buenos Ayres says:—"Minister Pitkin and Rear Admiral Walker, who commands the United States squadron here, hold daily conferences with the Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Banda Oriental republic for a secret treaty by which the Orientals guarantee a coaling depot to the United States on Liberty Island, to which the Minister and the Admiral make daily trips, to inspect the place.

Washington, 9th.—Nothing is known as to what the London Times says about negotiations with the Oriental and Argentine Governments for a coaling depot.

Paris, 10th.—Mr. Ernest Renan has been interviewed by a reporter in reference to the Clerical agitation against the Government that has been going on for some time. The illustrious Orientalist blamed energetically those clergymen who preach politics from the pulpit, and said they were the sole cause of the recent tumults in the churches.

Vienna, 10th.—The alarm caused by Anarchist outrages continues. Two more fires, attributed to Anarchists, occurred to-day.

Berlin, 10th.—The Nord Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung confirms the refusal of the German Government to make any commercial arrangements with Russia.

London, 10th.—Further serious rioting at the Sutherland and Westwood mines is reported.

St. Petersburg, 10th.—Dr. Peninski, a high Polish ecclesiastic, while travelling through Kobcieley, in Russian Poland, was set upon by four men and murdered. On hearing of the crime a number of peasants pursued the assassins and shot them all dead. On the corpses were found devices with the words, "Executive Committee of the Polish Anarchists."

New York, 10th.—It is announced from London that, at a meeting of bankers and merchants, a Bi-metallist League was decided on and a Committee named.

St. Petersburg, 11th—It is announced that the Czar and Czarina will leave on the 22nd for Copenhagen in the Imperial yacht, to attend the Golden Wedding festivities of the King and Queen of Denmark.

Brussels, 11th—It is announced from Berlin that, in discussing the precautions to be taken for May 1st., General Caprivi advised the Ministers to try and influence the manufacturers not to give their men a holiday if the Socialists should elect to make a holiday on Monday 2nd instead of Sunday the 1st.

Madrid, 11th.—The Tariff Committee have suspended their labours till after Easter, without coming to any commercial agreement with England, or making other commercial treaty.

Paris, 11th.—The debate on Dahomey is about to begin in the Deputies, and it is feared that the Government may be left in a minority.

Vienna, 11th.—Contrary to expectations, Emperor William will not attend the manœuvres of the Austrian army.

Berlin, 11th.—The Moderate Conservatives and National Liberals have agreed to join hands when the Landtag reopens.

REVIEW FOR EUROPE.

The elections have passed off quietly and the voting seems to have been, as we expected, all one sided, the party in opposition to Dr. Luis Saenz Peña not going to the polls. This is not a time to comment upon the merits or demerits of the electoral system that prevails in South America. Suffice it to say that the President-elect is a man of high reputation, and that the prospects of the country are now steadily improving. The election of Sunday does not actually nominate the new president, but the members of the Electoral Colleges in the several Provinces, on whom will devolve the duty of choosing the President. The system of election is, therefore, based on that which prevails in the United States. So far as can be anticipated the votes of the Electoral Colleges will be unanimous in favor of Dr. Peña, in which case he will assume office as 6th. President of the Argentine Republic on Oct. 12th. of the current year.

All the newspapers are of accord in saying that the first act of the new President must be to re-arrange the Public Debt, as the Rothschild-Lidderdale compact is an impossible one. But there is a matter of far greater urgency, the immediate adoption of Capital Punishment, in view of the murders that are of daily occurrence. We have mentioned two whole families murdered in cold blood by an assassin at Ramallo; yet we are informed by a resident of that neighborhood that the monster is living in his house, unmolested. Some of his accomplices have been taken. The Rosario papers of Sunday say that "only three assassinations have occurred this week", which is so far favorable in shewing a decrease of crime. On Saturday we had news of the murder of a family of 5 persons at Canclones, near Montevideo, which shews that the condition there is little better than on this side of the water. To-day we have news of another shocking murder at Paysandu. It is manifest that Lynch law will come soon, unless Capital Punishment be enforced, as the Constitution prescribes.

The Federal Judge, Dr. Tedin, has issued an order for the liberation of Senator Alem and some other members of Congress arrested by order of Government on the 2nd inst. and now detained aboard a war-vessel. The Government, however, refuses to recognize the validity of such order, and maintains that during State of Siege it possesses extraordinary powers that warrant the arrest even of members of Congress. It is possible, that the example of Mr. Balfour in arresting Irish members of Parliament at the door of the House of Commons has had some effect upon the minds of the governing class even in South America. We publish Dr. Tedin's decree in another column. Without offering any opinion as to its validity we may observe that it shews an independence on the part of the Federal Court that cannot fail to make a good impression abroad. As Congress will meet next month the question will come up for discussion very soon, the Government requesting an act of indemnity for all its acts during the State of Siege. We may add that 4 newspapers were suspended last week.

Sir Vincent Barrington, Deputy-chairman of St. John's Ambulance Association, has succeeded in forming a branch in this city, many of the leading Argentines vying with British residents in promoting so useful an institution. He is to address a large meeting at the Italian Hall on the 19th inst. and will leave next day for England per mail-steamer Coleridge.

The terrible ravages of yellow fever at Rio Janeyro continue to cause an uneasy feeling here. Happily all the 16 sufferers per Italian steamer Rosario, in our roadstead, are now convalescent. The Rio News states that the deaths are so numerous that there is difficulty to keep a sufficient number of grave-diggers. The mortality among shipping in the bay at Rio is such that some vessels have lost 20 hands. A case similar to that of the British Queen occurred last week in our port. The owners of the steamer Olimpo solemnly assured the officers and men before leaving England that the vessel was not going to Rio, and now endeavor to compel them to proceed from here to that port.

In the case of the British Queen the owners found it prudent to cancel the charter to Rio and suspend the Naval Court which was summoned to try the crew. It is desirable to make some reforms in the Merchant Shipping Act which will enable the British Consul in each port to use his discretion in cancelling charters under like circumstances. The owners in too many cases care nothing for the lives of their seamen.

The subscription lists for the new Argentine National Bank were opened on the 7th. inst. The capital is fixed at 50 millions currency, in 500,000 shares, and the first series of 100,000 shares is now offered to the public. We regret to say that up to Saturday night only 6,600 shares had been taken, including 2,400 by a prominent German firm, Herman Schlieper and Co. The lists will be kept open until the 21st. inst. It is impossible to offer a safe opinion as to whether the shares will be all subscribed for. Possibly the recent action of the Government in suspending the directors of the old National Bank has an unfavorable effect on the new enterprise.

An effort of a similar nature is occupying attention at Montevideo. The bases for a new bank as voted by the Chambers of that city will be found in another column. Meantime President Herrera-Obes has published an indignant contradiction of the statement that he was mixed up with the frauds that wrecked the National Bank of Uruguay.

We have nothing new to report on the condition of Baron Hirsch's colonists; they are looking with anxious eyes for the arrival of Col. Goldschmidt, who came out per R. M. S Clyde and is at present in quarantine at Martin Garcia. There has been some delay about giving them their farms, and the poor people have suffered a good deal, but delays of this kind are unavoidable in establishing new colonies.

Mr. Herbert Ward, the African traveller, delivered a very successful lecture last Saturday for benefit of the British Hospital, and returns to-morrow per Clyde to England.

Mr. Consul Bridgett's valuable report on the agriculture of this country has been received from London. He estimates the surplus of wheat for exportation at 500,000 tons against 328,000 tons last year, and adds that one good harvest in three years (say 12 bushels to the acre) amply repays the farmer.

The exchange market has been very active of late in view of the improvement in the produce market. Rates are sustained at

MAILS FROM EUROPE.

The Nord-America brings European dates up to 18th March. We summarize as follows:—

Berlin, March 17—Prince Bismarck never was in better health. His two years' retirement has completely restored his health. In spite of his doctor's advice, he continues to work at night. He gets up about half-past ten, and generally takes a ride after breakfast. He is at present engaged in writing his Memoirs, and is assisted by Herr Bucher. The Prince says that he has more trouble in managing his properties than he had formerly in governing. He reads about 20 newspapers a day.

Vienna, March 17—The Committee appointed to study the monetary question is at present engaged in consulting leading financiers. Professor Menger advises the Committee not to fix the relative value of gold and silver until the gold-stock of the country increases and render it possible to redeem the currency.

Cadiz, March 17—The greatest distress prevails in the lower classes owing to the scarcity of work. At San Lucar the unemployed made a manifestation in the streets and called on the Mayor to give them work. The authorities have agreed to give each workman a two lb. loaf of bread every day. The Municipality here have given work to 500 of the unemployed. The distress in Jerez is likewise very great.

Paris, March 17—Five anarchists have been arrested, and the police have made 35 domiciliary visits. The Figaro says that the police are watching 300 anarchists. There are over 12,000 anarchists. The Intransigeant all but accuses Constans of being at the bottom of the outrages.

Rome, March 18—An interpellation has been moved in the Chamber, owing to certain statements made by Count Taevena, Italian Ambassador in Berlin, criticizing the commercial and political condition of France, and upholding the expediency of prolonging the triple alliance.

Berne, March 17—The financial year ends with a deficit caused by the increased expenditure in the War Department. The revenue in 1892 was 69 million francs and the expenditure 72 millions.

AN IMMENSE SHOE-FACTORY.

Few people are aware of the rapid development of local industry and it is no exaggeration to say that 66 % of the population are ignorant of the fact that within a few squares from the centre of the city, there is an immense shoe-factory conducted on the most modern principles, affording work for 900 people, and supplying strong, excellent boots and shoes at remarkably low prices. The Fabrica Nacional de Calzado, situated in a salubrious spot, a little outside of Almagro, is quite a little town. Neat workmen's buildings cluster round the factory. A nicely laid out plaza with a stand for the band covers a square of ground; a school building for the workmen's children has been erected in front of the main entrance of the factory; an adequate site has been set apart for a church, for Villa Crespo—as the little town is called, is to be made a parish, there being already about 4,000 inhabitants. Add to that neatly laid out streets, a club and a theatre, built by subscription amongst the workmen, and you have an idea, a faint one, of Villa Crespo, for, to properly appreciate the degree of advancement, contentment and prosperity of the inhabitants, you must visit the place and see the raw hide going in at one door and the boots neatly packed in card-board cases coming out through the other.

Like most undertakings of sound standing, the Fabrica had a very humble beginning. It began in a small shop in Calle Rivadavia in the year 1876, where only one man did the cutting of materials, and the work was given out. Later on a "conventillo" was rented in Calle San José with the idea only of having as many workmen live together as possible, in order to secure more uniformity of work. By degrees this building was converted from a conventillo to a regular workshop by knocking down the division walls. In 1884, this again was found inadequate, and the factory transferred to Calle Balcarce, corner of Venezuela, where for the first time steam was used, and many modern machines for sewing, cutting, stamping etc. were brought out from Europe and installed there. About 300 workmen were here employed, and for the first time also women and girls, who had a separate department quite to themselves. Up to here, the business was carried on under the firm of Mantels and Pfeiffer, and under the management of Mr. Salvador Benedit who has directed the factory from its infancy, and continues yet to manage the vast establishment which stands now in Calle Corrientes, corner of Ministro Ingles. Messrs. Mantels and Pfeiffer finding the business constantly growing decided to sell same, and in June 1887 a Joint Stock Company was formed under the name of Fabrica Nacional de Calzado, with a fully paid up capital of $600,000 This Company bought the concern from Messrs. Mantels and Pfeiffer, and purchased at the corner of Calle Corrientes and Ministro Ingles a plot of ground of 340,000 square yards, in the centre of which each on a full square to itself the vast buildings of the shoe factory and tannery were erected.

A tannery had to be started, as it was impossible to always find here the proper quality of leather required in order to guarantee to customers a real, solid article.

The Company elected Mr. Adolf Mantels as president. He has filled this post ever since. During an absence of a year in Europe he was represented by Mr. Albert Oostendorp.

In 1888 the capital was raised to $1,200,000, and still this was found altogether inadequate for this vast enterprise.

Where in 1887 was bare camp, serving only for pasturage, to-day there exists a thriving town with paved streets, electric light, a handsome square, many shops, a theatre, etc; and a plan is already approved by the municipality for a handsome church.

This proves what energy and labour can do, and how such enterprises serve to benefit the country; formerly boots and shoes were imported from Europe by the million, and now this factory furnishes for about half price a far superior article to what European manufacturers send us as export article.

After this brief introduction, we now give hereunder a description of this vast factory.

As we have already stated, the tannery forms part of the Fabrica, and a very important part. The tannery in itself is a model establishment. There is a special department provided with the best machinery, including several machines made on the premises, for reducing immense blocks of Chaco and Santa Fé timber to sawdust for tanning purposes. Independently of saw-dust, eucalyptus leaves—a new idea—are employed for tanning, and these leaves fill the building with the pleasant and peculiar perfume of the eucalyptus tree. The tannery building covers an entire block, and here may be seen some five hundred men at work. There are two stories in this building, which covers an area of 5,000 square yards. In the lower story there are 36 lime-tanks. There are four machines for tearing the flesh particles off the hides, and there is an ingenious machine for dividing a hide into two or three sheets. In other words, one hide becomes two or three hides. All the machinery is worked by a powerful and truly beautiful steam-engine of 150 horse-power, purchased by Mr. Mantels in Paris. The fuel used for this and minor engines is not coal or wood, but simply the used tan and other refuse, so that the cost of fuel is nil. The upper story is used for drying the hides.

The preliminary work done, the hides are passed to the adjacent sheds, where there are 52 large, 52 average and 33 small lime-pits, where the hides and skins are allowed to remain for a number of months. There is a bewildering number of machines at work in this department, which can afford work for 500 men. The patent-leather department is situated in this shed. At the extremity of the sheds is the engine department, where there are two engines: one we have already mentioned. The other is kept in reserve, in case of the first breaking down. The electric light dynamo is in this department. There is besides a small department containing the chemical compositions used in preparing the hides and skins.

The hides and skins having been tanned, prepared softened, greased, varnished and polished, they are forwarded to the shoe-department, an immense building, covering about 5000 square yards. On entering, you see an immense hall, where hundreds of men and boys are at work, preparing soles and heels for the boots and shoes. At the entrance are the offices of the Company and the retail-department. The manager's offices are in the second story. In front of the entrance is a neat-building, which is the school, where the workmen's children are taught to read and write, and are moreover taught a trade. The hall, where the men and boys are working as above stated, is 50 yards wide by 100 deep. Innumerable machines, some of the most complicated and ingenious nature, are moving in this hall, part of which is cut off for women and girls, who give the finishing touch to the boots and shoes. The most delicate and ingenious machine of all is to be found in this section. It is a North-American patent, very neat and compact, somewhat like an ordinary sewing-machine, for making button-holes for certain classes of boots. A button-hole is made in a few seconds. This little machine represents an immense economy of labor. There are numerous machines for cutting out soles and heels, for sewing the soles and nailing the heels to the boots, and nothing could be more interesting than to watch the shoe passing from a design to its finished form. Hand-labor is reduced to a minimum. It would be impossible to give a complete description of all this machinery in these columns. An octavo-volume would be required to do justice to the subject.

The factory turns out on an average 700 pair of boots and shoes per diem. It could turn out 3,000 pair, and the day is not far distant when this will be the daily figure, for with a solid and excellent article and prices that defy competition, the Fabrica Nacional de Calzado must see its business increase every day. Owing to the crisis, the factory is working, we may say, at half-steam. The factory could give work to 3000 men. There is a branch in the factory, moreover, which is susceptible of great development. We allude to relief work in leather for chairs etc. This work is done in a manner that the best European factory would find it difficult to surpass. The designs, which are in brass moulds, represent a good deal of money.

In 1890, the Fabrica turned out no less than 400,000 pair of boots and shoes, besides many articles in this particular line of business, such as leather relief work, rugs etc. The Fabrica is in a position to turn out a million pair per annum without increasing its machinery.

Such enterprises, though not known as well as they should be, reflect credit on the country and point to the rapid development of local industry.

LATEST FROM MONTEVIDEO.

April 11th.

Advices just received from Brazil state that the State of San Pablo has contracted the services of a well-known North American sanitary engineer to report on the best way to make San Pablo a healthy city. The same state has granted a concession to Baron Jacequay to build a new port at San Sebastian. A model town is to be founded at that spot.

The steamer Iberia has arrived here from Valpariso.

It rained heavily here yesterday.

Telegrams from Rio state that the packet Lusitania left that port at 10 o'clock yesterday morning for the Plate.

There seems to be a stiff quarrel going on between our Postmaster-General and yours. It would appear that our P. M. G. sent a note couched in such terms to the Argentine P. M. G. that the latter sent back the note in question.

As was expected, the steamer Diamantino was fired upon by Fort Coimbra. The passengers were transferred to the Rio Verde, which conveyed them to Matto Grosso.

THE NEW BANK OF URUGUAY.

(From the 'Uruguayan News'.)

From the Financial Bill passed by the Senate last week and which received the 'cumplase' of the E. P. on Thursday we extract the following Chapter III, being that part of said Bill referring to the proposed foundation of the new Bank, which it is understood will be called the Bank of Uruguay.

Art. 25—The Executive Power is hereby authorized to contract for the foundation of a Bank of deposit, discount and note issue, upon the following bases, viz:

Basis 1—The capital shall be $8,000,000 and may be increased with the authorization of the E. P.

The Bank cannot commence operation until it has at least four million dollars gold coin of its capital in cash, and must pay up another two millions within two years and the rest within four, counting from the day of the opening of the Bank.

To assure the first instalment of capital, the E. P. on celebrating the concession contract, will exact a deposit of £50,000 sterling gold, in guarantee of the fulfilment of the contract, which amount will be lost to the depositors if they do not found the Bank within the six months fixed by Art. 29, of this Law.

The other payments to be verified under penalty of the loss of the privileges accorded by this law.

Basis II.—Within the course of four years, the Bank shall be obliged to open a branch in each Department of the Re, public, where business may produce sufficient to sustain it, and it must immediately establish three branches—namely, in the cities of Salto, Paysandú and Mercedes.

Basis III—The operations of the Bank shall be:—

1. To issue notes payable to bearer, at sight, under the conditions hereinafter expressed.
2. To discount 'conformes', promissary notes and other commercial documents.
3. To receive deposits at sight or on term, with or without interest.
4. To open current accounts.
5. To make advances upon transferable property, merchandise in deposit and rural products.
6. To effect operations of exchange with home and foreign markets, and to issue letters of credit on the same.
7. To establish savings banks.
8. To undertake on commission all the usual kinds of commercial and financial bank operations.

Basis IV.—The Bank is forbidden:

1. To operate on the Bolsa for its own account, except for the purchase or sale of precious metals.
2. To acquire shares of joint-stock Companies or landed properties (excepting those necessary for the working of the Bank) to make mortgage loans, though it may receive shares or properties or accept mortgages in payment or guarantee of previous debts, the collection of which cannot be assured by other means.
3. To operate in any form in its own shares.
4. To make loans to persons or Companies not domiciled in the country.

Basis V—The Bank shall have the right of issuing notes of $10 or more convertible at sight in gold ('oro sellado') up to double the value of its paid-up capital, and besides as an exclusive privilege, up to 40 % of the same capital in notes under $10 convertible in gold or silver (" en plata ó en oro sellado") at the choice of the Bank.

This authorization does not represent the derogation or modification of the dispositions of 1876 on the cancellatory power of gold and silver.

Basis VI.—The failure to convert one single note of the Bank's issue shall, by this act alone, produce the rescission of all the privileges accorded by this law.

Basis VII.—In the public offices only metallic money and the notes of the new Bank, so long as they are convertible, shall be received.

Basis VIII.—The Bank shall have the faculty of coining its capital in national money, under the superintendence of the E. P.

The Legislative Body will fix the proportion of gold and silver to be employed in said coinage.

Basis IX.—The metallic reserve of the Bank must never be less than forty per cent of its total issue and deposits at sight.

The E. P. shall appoint a Fiscal Interventor for the faithful observance of this basis.

Basis X.—The fortfolio corresponding to the issue and the deposits at sight, in the part not assured by the metallic reserve, shall always be of commercial documents for terms not exceeding six months.

Basis XI.—The judicial and administrative deposits shall be made in this Bank.

The Judicial deposits and issue shall always have preference over all the other simple debts of the Bank.

Basis XII.—The service of the internal debt shall be in charge of the Bank, as also that of the foreign debt so far as is permitted by contracts in force at the execution of the present Law.

The E. P. shall arrange with the Bank for the remuneration of these services on terms not exceeding those at present existing.

Basis XIII.—The Bank shall be exempt from commercial stamps for its shares, notes and other documents signed by it, and shall pay no other taxes except those on the real estate it may possess.

Basis XIV.—All the funds proceeding from the national revenues shall be paid into the Bank by the collecting offices in current account.

Basis XV.—The credits of the Bank shall not have any fiscal privilege, but during the term of the concession said privilege cannot be granted to any other establishment of credit.

Basis XVI.—The E. P. may overdraw on the Bank up to one and half million dollars in current account of reciprocal interest.

The interest shall be 1 % less than that charged to private persons and shall not exceed 7 % per annum.

The mechanism of this accounnt, to give it due commercial form, shall be fixed by a special contract.

Basis XVII.—The Bank shall publish every month a balance of its operations with the necessary specifications.

Besides the signatures of the officers of the Bank, the said balance shall be countersigned by the fiscal interventor.

Basis XVIII.—The President of the Board of Directors of the Bank must possess the conditions of age, citizenship and residence in the country required to be a Senator of the Republic, and shall be appointed by the E. P. with the assent of the Permanent Commission.

At least half of the staff of employees shall also be citizens of the Republic.

Basis XIX.—Any questions which may arise between the State and the Bank shall be resolved by arbiters under the jurisdiction of the Tribunals of the Republic and in conformity with its laws.

Basis XX.—The concesion shall last for 30 years as regards the specialities of this Law, but the Bank may continue its operations after the expiration of that term in conditions of common right.

Art. 26—The Statues of the Bank, the fundamental bases of which are fixed in this chapter, shall be formulated with insertion of these same bases, without transcending the general laws of the Republic and shall in any case be subject to the approbation of the E. P.

Art. 27—Whoever the person or syndicate with whom the E. P. contracts for the foundation of the Bank, and whatever the nationality of the shareholders of the new institution, it shall always be exclusively Oriental.

The concessionaires and shareholders of the Bank may never appeal to any foreign jurisdiction with respect to the negotiations relative to the Bank, and they may only make valid their rights with strict subjection to the special Law of the Bank and the other Laws of the Republic.

Art. 28—As compensation for the concession authorized by this law, the E. P. shall exact for the State part of the profits of the Bank, to be fixed in a reserved clause by the Legislative Body.

Art. 29—The concession granted by the E. P. shall lapse if, within three months from the approval of its statutes by the E. P. the Bank shall not have begun to operate under legal conditions. The concession shall likewise lapse if the Bank does not commence operating within six months after the promulgation of this law.

CROSSING THE ANDES IN A CARRIAGE.

We translate the following from the Patria of Iquique:—

Much attention has been awakened here by the successful trip of a Spanish gentleman named Benito Requejo, accompanied by his wife, from the Argentine Republic to this city in a carriage. This is the first time a trip of the kind has been performed. Mr. Requejo left Salta by the Quebrada del Toro and found the road excellent as far as Tambo. He then followed the Quebrada de las Zorras, where the road is very soft. He had often to "cut camp", and more than once his assistants had to put their shoulders to the wheel to push the carriage forward. He rested for a day at Cuevas, after which he chose the Chorillos road. The road from Chorillos to Canchari was terribly heavy. From Canchari he proceeded to Catua, along a very narrow road. From Catua he drove to Huantiquina without much difficulty, but from the latter point to Agua Caliente he encountered fearful difficulties. He had actually to build a road nearly a mile long for the carriage. From Agua Caliente he reached Soncor by way of Pajonal. Thence to Calama the road was very uneven, as he had to cross mountains. However, he and his wife arrived safe and sound at Catama, where they alighted from their carriage and took the train to Antofogasta, where they took the steamer to this port. The journey to Catama was 360 miles and was performed in eleven days. The carriage wrs drawn by three mules, and as there are no inns on the way, Mr. Requejo carried his own supply for the journey.

CATTLE IN SANTA FE.

A Rosario paper publishes the following: It is estimated that the number of horned cattle in Santa Fé is 2,600,000.

Of these 250,000 are bullocks, which is about the number required for the 5 million acres colonized, and the number of milch cows is likewise set down at 250,000. According to the census of 1887, the number of horned cattle in Santa Fe was as follows:

	Head
Cattle, native, pure and half blood.....	1,985,271
Milch cows.....	199,635
Bullocks.....	143,537
Total	2,328,443

There has been an increase of 270,000 head. The number of horned cattle per head of population is 84. In 1887 the proportion was 104.

In regard to sheep it is calculated, on the export figures of wool, that there has been a considerable increase. The export of wool in 1887, was 572 tons, and the figure for the first eight months of 1891 is 4,568 tons. Taking these figures as a basis, and making allowance for the percentage of wool from Cordoba, it is estimated that the number of sheep is ten millions.

As regards horses it is calculated that the number has decreased but the quality has improved. In 1887 there were 536,000 horses in the province. Owing to the slaughter in the 'graserias' it is calculated that the figure to day stands lower. The race has been much improved, thanks to the efforts of Capt. Kemmis and Messrs. Dickenson, Nash, Tietjen and Nordenholz, whose studs are well known. The same gentlemen have imported a goodly number of price bulls and cows, particularly of the Durham and Dutch breeds. All these studs are near Rosario.

RAILWAY ITEMS.

Engineer Limerdoux has laid before the Board of Public Works his report on the tunnel pierced by the Fives-Lille Company, under the road of the Central Argentine. He states in this report that the tunnel stood all the tests, and the only observation he makes is that the Company have laid a double, instead of a single, track, as marked in the plan. However, as the tunnel has ample accommodation, he raises no objection to this. Government will probably authorize the Company to open the tunnel to traffic this week.

The Inspector-General has just returned from a visit of inspection over the Transandine Railway in general and the 5th Section—Uspallata to Rio Blanco—in particular. The Inspector-General informs the Government that this section fulfils the requisite conditions for traffic. The roadbed has been excellently built.

Government has ordered payment in Moratorio Bonds of £91,277 to the Central Cordoba Railway, guarantee at 5 per cent on the capital invested in the Central North line.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

We have the honour to inform our friends and the public—as polite tradesmen put it—that, in consequence of the improving condition of the country, which will act as balm on the sorely stricken pockets of our European readers, we intend in the future to issue three Packet Editions monthly (without extra charge), and begin to-day for the R. M. S. Clyde to-morrow.

A funeral is nothing to the dulness of the elections on Sunday. Not even a hat damaged or a corn trodden upon. "Canonical" for Dr. Luis Saenz-Peña. So best.

Among the passengers leaving to-day are the Very Rev. Fathers Moore and McDonnell, Mr. Herbert Ward, Major Schreiber and other visitors who have been making a longer or shorter stay in the River Plate. They all take pleasant impressions.

On Sunday the Very Rev. Father Moore said Mass at Villa Devoto, about 30 of the villagers attending. He stayed till yesterday at a friend's Quinta there, and said that in no part of the country did he remark so invigating an atmosphere.

The latest news about the political prisoners is that the least important of them are to be landed at Montevideo. The following gentlemen were shipped last night to B. O. on board the steamer Cosmos: Messrs. Torino, Paes, Castro, Pastor, Arraga, Alvear, Figueroa, Posse, and Leguizamon. They were under the charge of Commodore Solier. Drs. Alem, Molina, Castellanos, Lidiedal and Barroetaveña are still prisoners on board the Argentina.

Colonel Agustin Virasoro will replace the late Mr. Pico as Chief of the Argentine Boundary Commission in Chile.

We regret to see that politics are giving rise to many duels: but, fortunately, the undertakers have made no money out of them as yet.

We had the pleasure of a visit yesterday from Major Schreiber, who has returned from Entre Rios after some days' shooting at Mr. Callender's estancia. He says the floods have caused great damage near Gualeguaychu.

The Banks and the Bolsa will be closed on Thursday, Friday and Saturday. This means four welcome days' respite from wool, wheat, hides, tallow, maize and the vagaries of the Gold Eagle. It is to be hoped that the Clerk of the Weather will not take it into his head to spoil the general vacation.

That time-honoured shanty, the Retiro Railway station, is to come down within one calendar month. If the C. A. R. C. refuse to do the work, the Municipality will do it for them and send them in the bill. This is kind, and ought to touch the hard hearts of the Board in London and The River Plate Railway News here.

The attention of residents in Quilmes is drawn to the advertisement calling a meeting for this evening of those who are desirous of assisting in the Anglican Church movement there. A regular service having been established and a clergyman in residence, much yet remains to be done which requires the united efforts of those interested.

The Southern Railway has sailed in with its esteemed colleagues and is issuing first and second class cheap return tickets for Holy Week, available to Monday next, 18th inst, to all stations.

The propietors of the English Book Exchange request us to inform their many customers that they are now located at 333 Florida, between Cuyo and Corrientes, as many persons still persist in going to their old place.

Olmi's "Remate Regio" to-day at No. 1241 Calle Paraná will cause an eclipse of the sun. The Catalogue shows no fewer than 356 articles to be offered. Prodigious!!

The return match between the B. A. C. C. and Montevideo C. C. will take place in Montevideo on the 14th and 15th inst. The following will leave by Wednesday night's boat to represent the B. Aires C. C.:—Messrs J Gifford, E R Gifford, A B P Boyd, B J Dillon, J C Walsh, G S Thompson, C W Thompson, V Ker Seymer, C Parry, D J Stokes and another.

We learn from our esteemed Rosario contemporary the Argentine News that the subscription list formed for the benefit of the Arroyo Seco sufferers closed some time ago, and the public are anxiously awaiting some kind of balance sheet, showing the destination of the funds. The Rosario Literary and Social Guild have taken a leaf from the book of their E. L. S. brethren here, and intend going to Alta Gracia for a Holy Week trip.

The Rev. Dr. Smith A. M. will preach on Sunday, 24th. inst., at noon, at the Ferguson estancia, Canuelas district.

The New York papers announce the arrival there of Austin Byron Bidwell, one of the gang of forgers who in 1872 and 1873 worked the Bank of England for £1,000,000. The crime of which the two Bidwells and their accomplices, George McDonald and Edward Noyes were convicted was conceived and planned by master minds, but failed of success on account of an unforeseen trivial incident. These four men forged notes and bills of exchange on the Bank of England amounting to £1,000,000, but they did not get all the money. All were sentenced to life imprisonment. After his own release George Bidwell set to work to get his brother out. In this endeavor he enlisted the aid of many influential people. His release was finally agreed to, provided he would leave England. McDonald and Noyes are still in prison.

What about the "celestial vagabond" that appeared on Saturday evening, the eve of the election of Electors, and which superstitious politicians declared to be a sign in the heavens of broken heads in this part of earth? That comet was a bad prophet; nevertheless, we'd like to hear something about it, if it is a new one. As a rule, comets turn out to be as old as Methusalem's cat.

Here's a hint from New York for President Pellegrini, members of Congress and autograph-hunters:—"The requests made for the autographs of public men in Washington are so numerous that at times the desk of the President's doorkeeper, Charles Loeffler, is piled high with albums left there to receive the Presidential signature. Loeffler acts as a sort of middle-man in this sentimental trade, and when the President has a few minutes of leisure the stock of albums is defly and decorously placed before him for his attention. In the Senate and House the pursuit of autograph-getting is conducted through the medium of the pages, who sometimes, it is averred, receive $10 for an album bearing the signatures of Senators, or $25 for one filled with the autographs of the leading members of the House. One of the specimens of chirography most in demand is that of Senator Stanford, who signs his name simply "L. Stanford," in a plain and old-fashioned way."

Wages are rising again in the Santa Fé colonies, owing to the great scarcity of farming hands in many places.

Lord Mayor Bollini, is in the Civic Chair again, and we rejoice to see his health much improved by his trip to Montevideo.

Dock Number Three will be opened to shipping to-day or to-morrow, thus affording additional facilities for death by drowning to all classes of citizens.

The railways and hackney coaches are picking up all the passenger traffic that the Belgrano Tamway is unable to tackle. The hack drivers now dodge up and down Calle Santa Fé, on the look out for people who get tired waiting for a seat in the tram cars, and the Knights of the Whip find it a perfectly happy hunting ground.

Father Becco preached a most impressive sermon in Santo Domingo church on Sunday against those three social evils, Duelling, Suicide and Gambling. He dwelt especially on the appalling increase of the latter vice in this city of late.

When, at the celebration of his silver jubilee, the sum of £7000 was presented to Cardinal Manning, he at once began to devise means to bestow it worthily, and he said at the time: "I will die as a priest ought to die, without money and without debts." He kept his word.

At a doctors' dinner in New York lately the "menú" was in Latin, each dish in the form of a prescription. As a rule, medical men are full of wit and humour.

The Lord Mayor has closed the new Apolo Theatre till a lot of extra work necessary for the safety of the gay and festive public who frequent the place be done.

A facetious subscriber, to whom we have been indebted for many spicy contributions since we first took up our pen, thirty one years ago, sends us the following:—"The Decline of Swagger is, according to the Spectator, one of the signs of the times. Officers are noted as being among the quietest of men, not marked off by any mannerisms of dress or demeanour from other well-bred and agreeable gentlemen. Scholastic swaggerers are no more, but "the scientific person sometimes swaggers with unquenchable energy." The only people who put on "side" nowadays are, according to the writer, petty country squires, bumptious scientific gentlemen, bloated financiers, and overgrown shopkeepers. We think the list might easily be extended." Our f.s. adds slyly: "to affluent editors and contumacious cricketers." We'll allow the latter to answer for themselves; but, as for "affluent editors," we'd very much like to meet even one. A "black swan" is not half so rare. There is not a man in the Editorial Bus who can afford just now even a new hat, or decent pair of boots.

The Volunteers at Palermo took their first lesson in rifle firing in the Polygon yesterday.

The newsboys of the city are furious politicians. On Sunday night they went to the Nacion office, expecting the issue of a bulletin, and, while waiting for it indulged in tremendous shouting and counter-shouting for Radicals, Acuerdistas, Roquistas, Mitristas etc. A happy thought struck someone in our colleague's office, and he threw a lot of coppers amongst the young rascals. The political shouting ceased instanter, and a terrific free fight for the co

Messrs. Moore & Tudor, Maipu 163, B. Aires.
Chascomus, March 23rd 1891.
Dear Sirs—
"I have tried HAYWARD'S "PASTE" DIP on my Sheep, and have pleasure in bearing testimony to its EFFICACY AS A DIP. I need have no hesitation in recommending it generally as a Cure for Scab, without discolouring or damaging the Wool.
The "PASTE" is in my opinion preferable to the Powder, and will probably have a larger sale than the latter."
Yours very truly
(Signed)
JOHN KELLIE.

It has been proved by many important Estancieros that HAYWARD'S PASTE is more convenient to use than any other Dip, being already mixed and dissolving in any kind of water. It makes a smooth soapy bath which adheres well to the Fleece and leaves the wool clean and soft.

Telegrams from Bordeaux announce that the public sales of River Plate sheepskins were closed yesterday, closing prices showing a rise of 15 centimes. During the auction bidding was very active. Two thousand bales were sold and 200 were withdrawn. Further telegrams announce that wools are very active in the North of France, and that prices are rising.
